EVIDENCE & RESEARCH BASED PRACTICES:

Thinking for a Change (T4C): T4C is designed to help youth and adults to recognize errors in their thinking causing negative consequences. Cognitive restructuring enables participants to make changes resulting in positive outcomes.

Nurturing Parenting: An evidence-based practice that is a family centered initiative designed to build nurturing parenting skills as an alternative to abusive and neglectful parenting and child rearing practices.

Truancy Remediation (WhyTry): WhyTry is a truancy remediation program. It has been proven to reduce incident of school violence and lower dropout rates. Please review WhyTry research on their website at www.whytry.com.

Family Group Decision Making: JWYC provides coordination & facilitation for this evidence-based practice. The referred family has the opportunity to create their own solution to critical concerns.

Trauma Informed Care (GIRL'S Circle): Girl's Circle integrates relational theory, resiliency practices, and skills training in a specific format designed to increase positive connections, personal and collective strength, and competence in girls.

WE ALSO PROVIDE:

Independent Living: Prepares youth for the realities of self-sufficiency by complimenting their own efforts and assuring that participants recognize and accept their personal responsibility for preparing for and making the transition from adolescence to adulthood.

Anger Management: The anger management program is a cognitive behavioral approach designed to help participants learn effective coping skills and become aware of their reactions in real life situations.

Community Service: Works with youth to fulfill their community service and restitution obligations. We develop a repertoire of community contacts in need of volunteers and work to match them with the interests of the juveniles and monitor for success.

Visit Coaching: A visitation service using a "coaching" system based on the principles of empowerment, empathy, responsiveness, and active listening. Coached visits allow parents who may be a risk to their children or to another parent, to experience parent-child contact while in the presence of an appropriate 3rd party.

Supervised Visits: Provide 3rd party to supervise over parents that present safety risks to their children or family.

Visitation: Assess placement safety for settings such as foster care, group homes, residential placement, kinship, etc. on a monthly basis. Staff will meet with the child and their family to monitor the safety and well being of the child and assess ongoing service needs for all individuals involved.

Transportation: Provides linkage to community resources for families involved with CYS and JPO.

Extended Day Treatment: A community-based program that offers the same intensity as a residential program but within the community as a full academic school day which operates from 7am to 8pm.

Alternative Ed. Programming: A complementary "step-up" or "step-down" to Extended Day Treatment that offers the same highly structured academic model with a less restrictive environment allowing students to attend the program from 7am to 3pm.
