

The Butler County Criminal Justice Advisory Board and Butler County Human Services Present:

Pete Earley & Kevin Earley

Mental Health Treatment Within the Criminal Justice System

It was only when Pete Earley's own son, Kevin, during a manic episode, broke into a neighbor's house that he learned what happens to mentally ill people who break a law. This is a compelling look at the thousands who suffer confinement instead of care and brutal conditions instead of treatment in the "revolving doors" between hospitals and jails. Earley takes us through his experience as both a father and journalist trying to fight for a better way.

Pete Earley

Mental health advocate, author and journalist, Pete Earley is best-known for his nonfiction book, CRAZY: A Father's Search Through America's Mental Health Madness, which was one of two finalists for the 2007 Pulitzer Prize. (The word CRAZY in the title refers to our current mental health system, which Earley shows in his book to be deeply flawed.)

Kevin Earley

Kevin Early is a successful certified peer to peer mental health worker who previously worked on a jail diversion team in Fairfax Virginia.
